

1. Which of the following is likely to be A ?
(a) Air (b) shadow (c) rock (d) cold drink
2. Which of the following statements are true about B , c and D ? i). B is liquid ii) C is a gas iii) D is a solid iv) B,C and D are matter
Codes.... (a) only I (b) only ii (c) iii and iv (d) all are correct
3. What advantage do birds have of having eyes on either side of their head ?
(a) They can focus on two different things at one time
(b) (b) they can occasionally give rest to one there eyes
(c) They look beautiful with such eyes (d) they can fly better
4. By doing what, a bird can make an estimate of the distance ?
(a) By focusing its eyes on two different objects (b) by moving their head again and again
(c) by focusing both eyes on an object (d) by keeping their head still
5. Plants give of to ____ to help us breathe
(a) Oxygen (b) flower (c) leaves (d) leaving
6. Plants are ____ things.
(a) Moving (b) living (c) leaves (d) flowers
7. New plants grow from ____
(a) Soil (b) root (c) seed (d) leaf
8. The ____ of plants take in water and materials from soil .
(a) Roots (b) stems (c) water (d) frite
9. Roots hold plant in the ____
(a) Seed (b) root (c) soil (d) leaf
10. what are such actions known as and by which part of brain ,are they controlled?
(a) reflex action card and spinal cord (b) involuntary action and nurves
© reflex action and nerves (d) voluntary action and spinal card
11. which one of the following is the correct example of such action ?
(a) Moving away of hand when it touches hot object
(b) Solving a mathematical problem (c) riding bicycle (d) besting of heart